Louisville, Jan. 27, 1851.

Lanisville, Jan. 27, 1891.
The Lightning Conductors on the plan of J.
Spratt, of Cincinnati, appear to be very well devised, and in point of mechanical construction, are the heat I have ever seene.
It is to be hoped that the use of these role may become general as in important, auxiliary defence against a danger which must be regarded as of no ordinary magnitude, to which shillings are liable.

B. SH.LIMAN, Jr.
Prof. of Chem. in the Univ. of Louisville.

This will certify that I have examined the Ligating Rode, Metallic Points, and Insulating Artachmente, manufactured by Mr. Spraid of Cincinnats, Olio, and regard them as conof Cincionau, Ohio, and regard them us constructed in configurate to the general haws of the electric fluid; and the Gilded Copper Branched Pointes, as promising, from the results of several tests to which they were submitted, to resist for years the action of those atmospheric causes most likely to corrode them.

RIDDERS GAS RROULATOR.

The Regulator is small, simple, easily applied; when once adjusted, requires so further attention. The disagreeable effect of Gas upon the complexion is aimost catirely obvinted by the use of the Regulator. The light being more agreeable in culor and less injurious to the eye. The united thy consequences resulting from the escape of moconsumed gas are also remedied besides a great saving is effected by its nea, not only from the intense pressure from the street, but also when part of the lights in the room are extinguished the pressure necessarily acreasing on those still berning, so that a large portion of the gas escaping mburned, and is of course wasted.

the gas escaped monator is highly recommended by the press at large. For sale in sizes suitable for Manufactories, Holels, Stores, Office, and private dwellings. W. D. GIFFORD, 182 Thomes-st.

A.F. Tue celebrated tragedian Mr. E-Porrest has been playing a highly success ful engagement at Forbes' Theatre, in Providence. Mr. Forrest undoubtedly stands without a rival upon the American Stages and the cauzens of Providence are much indebted to Mr. Forbes for affording them an opportunity to enjoy this rich treat. Mr. F. in the management of his Theatre, displays the utmost fact and liberality; he seems to anticipate -the comfort and amusement nt the audience in every particular; and the numbers, that nightly crowd his house show that his efforts are fully appreciated.

THERE will be services at Zion Church, to-morrow evening, commencing at 7 o'clock.

GARIN NewPort.-There is a very famoas quarrel going on in the Newport Gas Company. Two sets of officers claim to be elected. Each Treasurer presents his bill to the consumers, and warns them not to pay his rival. We do not understand the cause or the merits of the quarrel, but we admire the course of the Newport News, which is to pay neither side till the Supremu Court has passed upon the question. We should like to have our Gas Company get into a similar muss, and we should be ready to stand on the conservative ground indicated by our friend of the News; nor would we complain of "the law's delay" however long the case might remain in court .- Prov-Journal.

Death from taking Ether .- At Lynn, yesterday, Mrs. Mary Farley, wife of Michael Farley, visited the office of Dr. Davis, dentist, who administered ether nreparatory to operating on her teeth. Percoiving that respiration has ceased, batteries and other means were used to resture the patient, but it was too late, and she died in the operating chair. A post mortem examination was made by Drs. Nowell and others, who found that one of the lungs adheren to the side, which prevented the free action of that organ. The deceased leaves two young children .- Bost. Jour.

A Leap for Life .- Immediately after the breaking out of the fire last evening in Harrison street, the persons below rushed up stairs to slarm the occupants residing in that portion of the building, but so rapid was the progress of the flance that thay had found their passage back cut off by the devouring element. A man named Hans Henry Gates, and his wife, who lived in the third story, finding all hopes of escape by the stairs cut off, and the hames rapidly apreading around them, appeared as the front window, and by their frantic gesticulations, attracted the intense attention and sympathy of the persons who had collected in the street below, who called tothem to jump out and they would cafely them. The woman prepared to leap forth from the giddy height-raised her hunds and took the fearful leap. In falling her clothing caught in the tavern lamb, almost on a levil with the second floor, and hanging suspended thus for a mon ent, she felland was caught by a colored man beneath, sustaining little or no injury. The colored man was considerably hurt by the shock. The husband fellowed after, but fell upor his back, seriously injuring the spine, evan if his back is not broken .- Baltimore Pat. Monday.

The Excitement in Cuba .-- Advices from Havana to the 17th insunt have reached Savannah. The papers are filled with millitary movements .- The Spanish and negro troops are exercised every day, and the white and black fire companies had been organized and armedas regular troops. The Savannah Republican says:

Another singular report is now circulating in the Island, that 6,000 or 8,000 men have organised at St. Dominge for a descent and attack upon the Island. Whether the American Fillibusters are supposed to be connected with them, we are not informed but certain it is that the Captain General has his eyes upon their movments. We are likewise informed that a French steamer taken for the Pampero had been fired into by the Spaniards.

Severe Shock of an Earthquake .- On the night of the 13th inst. two distinct shocks of an earthquake, accompanied by a heavy rumbling noise, were experienced at Kinderhook and Shuyvesant Falls, N. Y. It is araid they were sufficiently severe to shake the houses and produce considerable con sternation among the crockery-ware. The mext morning the ground was discovered to have opened, in several places, two of three inches in width.

-The man who undertook to convince himself that he was wrong, gave it up as a bad job. He said it was the hardest subject that he over get hold of.

Wednesday, Feb. 28.

House .- Mr. Greene, from the Commit tee on Finance, reported a resolution appropriating the sum of one thousand dollars, in addition to the three thousand dollars heretofore appropriated, for the support of the State Normal School; which was read and passed.

Mr. Greene, from the Committee on Finance, reported a resolution from the Senate, direction the General Treasurer to refund to Nathaniel W. Lee a certain sun of money paid by him to the Secretary of State; which was read and passed in concurrence.

An act to regulate the assessing and collecting of taxes, which came down from the Senate, was taken up, read a third time, and passed in concurrence.

Adjourned

Afternoon. An act confirming the title of the rectors wardens, and vestry of EmanuelChurch, in Newport, to a certain lot of land in said city, was read and passed.

Mr. Ball submitted a resolution declar ing that when the General Assembly adjourns on Friday next, it will adjourn to most according to law; which was read.

On motion of Mr. Tillinghast, the resc lution was ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Greene, from the Committee on Fi nance, reported a resolution from the Sonate, appropriating the sum of filteen hundred dollars to provide a place for the safe kombine of the books and papers of the courts in the county of Washington; which was read and passed in concurrence.

Mr. Boyden introduced an act providing for the punishment of persons who shall fraudulently evado the payment of ferred to the Committee on the Indiciary.

Mr. Manchester, from the Committee on Education, reported back "an act in relation to the election of School Committee in the city of Providence," which came down from the Senate concurred in with an amendment, with a recommendation to concur therein.

Mr. Titus moved that the act lie on the table.

On this motion the House was called, as follows:

Ayes - Messrs. Angell, Ball, Ballou, Borden, S. Brown, J. E. Brown, Damon, A. Harlis, J. C. Kenyon, Mowry, 2d, E. W. Mowry, S. R. Mowry, Olney, Owen, H. G. Penroe, Reckard, Taft, Thayer, Tillinghast, Titue, C. Whipple, W. Whip-

So the House refused to lay the act on he inblo. The amendment was then concurred in without a division.

Mr. C. Whipple presented the petition of Wm. C. Borden and others, of Tiverton, for an act incorporating the Pucasset Land Company; which was recieved and referred to the Committee on Corporations.

Mr. Jonckes, from the Committee on the Indiciary, reported "An act for the more effectual suppression of gambling-houses and games of chance)" which was read and passed.

An act in amendment of an act incorporating the Merchants Bank, in Providences increasing its capital to one million of dollars, came up for consideration.

Mr. Clarke moved an additional section, as an amendment, making the stockholders personally and individually liable for all the dehia of the corporation. The amendment was supported by the mover, and by Messrs. Spencer, Pecklinm, of South Kingstown, Chadsey, and Tillinghast, and opposed by Messrs. Greene, C. Whipple, Jenckes, and Borden.

Upon the question, Shall the amendmen prevail? the House divided, and stood, ayes 27, noes 15.

So, the amendment was adopted. On motion of Mr. Jenckes, the House then adjourned.

K. Q. Philander Doesticks Attends a Ladies' Fair,

"But my latest grand combination-charitable amusement exploit was attending a Ladice' Fair in aid of the Poor, which was given by the benevolent ladies' of the Church of the Holy Poker. Dampool (who can't give up city associations, and who wouldn't read his Bible if it wasn't printed in New York) had sent to me from his rural solitude to produce him a dressing gewn, a pair of slippers, and a crocheted wersted comforter. Thought I couldn't have a better apportunity so I went to the Fair.

Got to the Hall, paid my twenty-five cents at the door, went in-saw plenty of long fibles, with ladies behind them playing 'keep store'—tubles covered with mysterious articles of baby-linen, and complicated pieces of female harmess, designed for uses to me unknown, and also all sorts of impracticable conscessaries intended for gentlemen-slippers that you couldn't get un-smoking-caps that could never, by any possibility, fit anybody (shaped like a Chinese pagoda, and full of tinsel and spangles to make them prickly,) cigar cases, that you couldn't get a cigar into without breaking both ends off (perhaps they expect us to smoke 'stubs' like the news-boy') pin cushions stuffed so hard they would turn the point of a marlin-spike-watchcases just big enough to hold a three-conpiece, pen wipers that fill the point of a per wool—and divers other nonsensical inconveniences labricated by speculating females, the patterns being always very short, and the stitches very long; (I suppose they think we don't know the differ ence) to palm off upon victimized gentle men; and they resignedly submit to a price so exorbitant that if a Chatham street . Israelite had the impudience to ask it they'd straighten out his fish-hook nose like : darning-needle.

The prettiest looking girls are always placed where the least attractive looking merchandise is displayed, and they ask the biggest kind of prices, trusting to the galantry of the gentlemen 'not to beat them down,' flattering themselves, I suppose, that their pretty looks are "value received" for the exchange. One consequence of this arrangement is, that overy buyer spends all the money he has in his purse, taking in exchange therefore a lot of stuff so utterly useless, and so ridiculously absurd, that after having it on his table for a week or so to laugh at, he is fain to get rid of the rubbish by giving the whole to his chambermaid. Sometimes your purchases will hold together till you leave the room, and sometimes not; you must show yourself a man and equal to either fortung.

There is a post office-pretty girl called me, had a letter for me-bought it-paid ten cents-nothing in it-black. Solicitons young lady very anxious to have me give her twenty five cents to tell no how passage meney on the several railroads in much I weightd-paid her the monny, this State; which was read twice and re- and she told me within fifty one pounds and a half-young woman wanted me to invest in the 'grub bag'-gave half a dellar and fished in-got, in three times trying a tin whistle, half a stick of candy, and a peanut done up in tissue paper.

Went on to the nuction table, where after much competition with a ringletted miss, (who was put there to make Peter Funk bide against probable purchasers,) succeeded in bidding in a China vase, which I soon discovered had a hale in the bottom, and would'nt hold water any more than it would bake pork. If I had bought it anywhere else, should have thought I had been swindled, and have demanded my money back, but here, I supposed it was on exemplification of somegnewly discovered principle of fair dealing, with which I was not yet acquainted. Was much amused the way they disposed of the unsold goodscertain number of articles, (things left at the tables tended by the homely girls) and for each article twenty tickets were put into a hat, whence they were drawn out singly, and the last tickets drawn were to have the prizes-should have thought t was a lottery, if I had not been acquainted with the ladies, and known they wouldn't do anything so naughty.

Came to a place where an old indy, with steel speciacles, was cutting up a loaf of cake into particulary small pieces-asked what it mount-was told there was a gold ring somewhere in the cake, and they proposed to sell each piece for a quarter of a dollar, and give the ring to the lucky buyer -wondered if it wasn't another lottery on a small scale, but supposed it couldn't bewent to the supper-room. It is a curious metropolitan fact that at parties, bulls, or wherever a refreshment-table is apread, every man accms to regard it his just duty to fill himself to the very mouth with all the 'delicacies of the season,' and to accomplish it in the least time possible as if he was a gun, and anxious to ascertain his calibre, and find out how quickly he could be loaded in case of necessity. And the ladies are not far behind; this evening, I learned how much a female can ent, in a charitable cause—a pale-faced ball-room belle is a modern Sphinx - a gastronomic problem, whose solution will probably never be satisfactorily expounded.

Under the impression that she would not eat more than I had money to pay for, I invited a lady to take some refreshments, and I certainly think that, like the countryman, she imagined she was bound to eat all the bill-of-fare called for. She ate stewed oysters-firied oysters-toiled turkey with oyster sause-celery-oysters on the shell-ice cream, sponge cake, and Charlotte russe—Roman punch, two water-ices coffee, sandwiches, cold sausage, lubster mlad, oysters broiled, also stowed again, and six on the shell-orange jelly, grape ditto, cake; she then hinted again at oysters, but as the supply had run out, she was obliged to go hungry-paid the bill with a certified check on the Merchants' Bank . which luckily covered the amount, and greatly relieved my mind; for I feared there would be a balance which I would have to give my note for. Having previously procured the article, required for my friend, I immediately leftgot home, and proceeded to examine my purchases—found that the slippers—having been pasted together without the alightest regard to permanency, had come apart in my pocket, my comforter had raveled out, so that I had about six inches comforter, and a wad of yarn big enough to make a horseblanket-my dressing-gown had been made of a moth-eaten remnant, and where there was any sewing, every stitch was as long as a railroad, but the sleeves had, I verily believe, been put in with court-plaster, and the long seams closed with carpenter's glue.

Made up my mind that the objects of that feminine institution a Ladies, Pair, are somewhat as follows :-Firstly, to give the ladies an opportunity to show their new clothes, an opportunity to show their new landers, and to talk with a multivade of unknown gentlemen, without any preliminary latto-dunion. Secondly, to begas much money as possible from the gentlemen aforesaid, under the transparent formality of bargain and the bargain to the second of the and sale-which sale includes the buyer, who is really the only article fairly "sold" in the whole collection. Thirdly, to give some money to the ostentationsly poor, if there is any left after paying expense, and the Committee don't spend it in carriage

These some use presented to the public with the fullest confidence in their superiority and utility. After intrinsic cording to the directions given below, cannot fail to be entirely satisfactory; and an argument more conclusive than pages of continuous and recommendations. A fair trial is all I ask. These scape do the work of the laundry in the least manner in cold water, either handing, pounding, weathing machines, &c., without injury to the most delicate fabric. It cold weather, health may render it advisable to take the child off the water.

The tendency of these scaps is to soften the clother and loosed the hold of the durt, without injury.
